Presbytery Prayer Rota
Sunday 12 July 2020

Please pray for the following congregations and their ministers:

North Mull: Interim Moderator- Rev Jenny Earl --Locum-Rev Liz Gibson
Rev Liz asks that,

“We give thanks for the mutual support of the community.

We ask for calm and sensitivity all round as we adjust to greater movement of people, including the welcome of visitors to the island and the increased opportunities for islanders to travel further afield.

We pray too for the ongoing process of uniting as one parish.”

North Knapdale: Interim Moderator – Mrs Alison Hay
Session Clerk, David Logue asks us to:

Please pray for our situation of having no minister. Give thanks for the return this week of our Interim Moderator who has been on furlough for the last three months.

Pray for the recommencement of discussions on the “Mid Argyll Mission Plan” to decide on the shape of the five Mid Argyll parishes so that we can move forward together and the two vacant parishes of North Knapdale and Glassary, Kilmartin and Ford can have some access to ministerial leadership.

Please give thanks for the work of the local businesses which are upholding our communities during lockdown, particularly the local shopkeepers, the Co-op and the Tayvallich Shop, and West Coast Motors, and all the people who have gone out of their way to help others during lockdown.

Pray that visitors to the area are mindful of the directives still in place and respectful to keep our communities safe.

We pray for all those in our communities who have lost loved ones during this period. Help them to grieve as they are isolated from family and may they be able to share their sorrow and find comfort with others in our community.

Intimations

Daily Hope line

It is introduced by the Archbishop of Canterbury. There are three options, you can:

1. Listen to a well-known hymn being sung then listen to a reflection on it, about 15 minutes.
