Godly Play Experience

31st October @ 10:30 am - 12:00 pm via ZOOM

Do you remember the Godly Play demonstration at our Presbytery meeting in December?

Would you like to find out more?

Are you looking for new ways to engage with younger folk?

Godly Play Scotland are pleased to be able to offer a Godly Play Experience on Saturday 31st October from 10:30am. This is the first step in our online Discovery Day series and there is no charge for this event.

These are for people who are wondering what Godly Play is.

The Godly Play Experience is a chance to hear and wonder about a Godly Play story, to respond to that and to gather together again for our feast and blessing – a whole Godly Play session. We follow that with a chance to ask a few quick questions. And the whole Experience takes about 90 minutes.

The Experience is followed by three sessions, each looking at the different Godly Play story types and allowing more time for questions and discussion. (There is a charge for these).

Spaces on all these sessions are limited. Book on the Godly Play Scotland website at www.godlyplayscotland.co.uk

Mission Partner: Attached latest newsletter from Rev Ken Ross.

Anyone wishing an intimation posted should inform the clerk no later than Wednesday each week.

Rev Owain Jones, Moderator of Presbytery invites presbyters to weekly prayer together on Wednesdays at Noon. Prayer will be circulated and posted on the Presbytery Website.

It can also be viewed on the following link

Daily Hope line

It is introduced by the Archbishop of Canterbury. There are three options, you can:

1. Listen to a well-known hymn being sung then listen to a reflection on it, about 15 minutes.
2. Listen to well-known hymns being sung and sing along.
3. Listen to a prayer relevant to today's world
