Presbytery Prayer Rota

Please pray for the following congregations and their Minister/Interim Moderator

Cowal Kirk– Interim Moderator: Mrs Alison Hay. As Cowal Kirk comes into being we ask for special prayers for the new united congregation. Their new Session Clerk, Jim Anderson asks that we remember them in our prayers at this special time.

Lord God as we bring together all the congregations of this area to mark the establishment of Cowal Kirk we pray for all our people in the new Parish of Cowal Kirk.

We acknowledge that many of us have mixed feelings about such a development, but we pray that this union of your people here in this part of Cowal may mark a new and progressive chapter in our carrying out the commission you gave us, to spread your Word to all people.

May we always treasure and respect what has gone before, but may we also seek to know what you would have us do, and in that spirit move forward with a spring in our step and a new sense of purpose.

Campbeltown, Lorne & Lowland – Interim Moderator: Rev W Crossan

Rev Willie asks: Please pray for us as we open up again after the second period of closure, and for those members of the fellowship who for various reasons still feel unable to meet with us in person. Please pray for those who are on their own and for those who are supporting them. Pray for the ongoing vaccination programme and for the NHS staff locally who are working so hard to make it a success.

Campbeltown, Highland – Minister: Rev Steve Fulcher

Rev Steve asks that we give thanks for the positive and supportive enthusiasm of the congregation; for prospective new Elders coming on board, and for those mature elders who are stepping back. Also for the new members in preparation at the moment. Whilst restrictions still make life difficult, there is much to celebrate.

Please pray for Christian Unity.

Intimations
