The General Assembly has urges prayer across the Church of Scotland:

- for the people of Ukraine suffering under war.
- for wisdom among the leaders of the nations and all who work for justice and truth, and who keep open the horizon of reconciliation and peace.
- for the generosity of the Church in supporting the spiritual and humanitarian efforts of the local partner churches for those afflicted by war.
- to strengthen all those working in response to human need in Ukraine and other places around the world afflicted by war and violence, and for those working to welcome refugees.

Rather than waiting until Presbytery meetings to consider "Points for Prayer" proposed by committees it has been agreed to publish these following ratification of minutes by the committee.

Points for Prayer from the Mission Committee.*

- 1 Pray for those working in overseas mission. In particular, Rev Ken Ross in Malawi, Stewart Gillan in Jerusalem and Muriel Pearson in Tiberius.
- 2. Pray for the successful implementation of our Presbytery Mission Plan
- 3. Pray for organisations, within the bounds of Presbytery, who provide support to tackle poverty.

Point for Prayer from the Augusta Lamont Bequest Committee.*

The committee would invite Presbytery to pray for the success of the projects and in particular to pray for those people who may as yet not come to church but who could be encouraged to do so as a result of these Mission activities.
